KENTUCKY .-8. G. Hillis, Assistant Quartermaster-General,

Frankfort: Quite a number of old vets here on duty as Legislators are exercising a healthy influence in State affairs, and are treated with entire courtesy by the majority side of the House. We have had the pleasure of reviving the white Post here (No. 33), which was contemplating a surrender of its charter; but with the few noble comrades who have always stood by their charter, and the efficient aid of Gen. Fry, a fellow-member with me, and a visit of Department Commander Bow-man, we are happy to say Albert G. Bacon Post, No. 33, is alive and at work. We have also installed the officers of the colored Post (No. 44), and it is gratifying to see the great interest taken by the dasky comrades in the work. They are rapidly recruiting. We also installed and instructed the officers of the colored Woman's Relief Corps, No. 8. They now number 61 members, and are very diligent and efficient in their work. We have just issued charter No. 85, making 24 Posts since last Department meeting, and more to follow.

General Order, No. 14, issued at Schuyler Jan. 16, by command of H. C. Russell, Department Commander - J. D. Milis, Assistant Adjutant-General,-contained the following: Circumstances absolutely beyond the control of the Department Commander prevent his being able to meet his comrades in their annual Encampment on the third or fourth Wednesday of February. Having con-sulted the members of the Council of Administration, who have kindly approved of a change of date, it is concluded to postpone the meeting till the 29th. Therefore, the 11th annual session of the Department Encampment will be held at Lincoln in the hall of the House of Representatives, commencing on Wednesday, Feb. 29, at 10 o'clock a. m. The Council of Administration will meet at the headquarters of the Department in the same city on Tuesday, the 28th, at 7 o'clock p. m. It is understood that the Department Convention of the W.R.C. will hold its annual session in the Senate Chamber at the same time and place. All Post Commanders (or in their absence the Senior or Junior Vice-Commander), all Past Post Commanders and all delegates chosen at the December elec tion, who are in good standing in their Posts; will be admitted to sit as members of the Encampment. It is earnestly hoped that no Post in this Department will bar itself from representation in that Encampment on account of failure of its officers to send to the Assistant Adjutant-General the returns of the December election or its quarterly reports and dues. The comrades and citizens of Lincoln are making preparations to receive us royally. Let there be a full attendance. The rooms at which headquarters will be established, the rates for accommodation at hotels and railroad fares will be announced in future orders as soon as possible. In compliance with a resolution adopted by the 10th annual Encampment, propositions for the permanent location of the annual Reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Nebraska will be received at these headquarters from cities, towns and villages of the State. I will receive sealed proposals for such permanent location until the 25th day of February, 1888. Such proposals must be accompanied by a written guarantee, indorsed by five or more responsible persons, said document guaranteeing that the propositions will be faithfully carried out. All Commanders, officers and comrades who shall receive this order, will at once bring it to the notice of the public by securing its gratis publication in the papers and by promul-gating it as far as possible. All bids must be in-dersed as follows: "Proposals for securing the permanent location of the annual Reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Nebraska," and addressed to H. C. Russell, Department Commander, Schuy-ler, Neb. Whether any of the bids will be accepted or rejected will be determined by the 11th Eucampment. All bids will be opened and read by the Assistant Adjutant General at the meeting of the Council of Administration at Lincoln, Feb. 28, 1888, and be at once brought before the Encamp-

A NOBLE ARMY WORKER DEAR TRIBUNE: The death of Mrs. Rebecca E

Rouse, which lately occurred in Cleveland at the advanced age of 88 years, has been briefly noticed in the press of the country; but it is as President of the Soldiers' Aid Society of Northern Ohio, o which I was an associate officer, that I wish to speak of her, and to add a tribute to her memory. To those who have reached years of maturity since that time, the memories of the civil war seem dim and far away, but not so to us who lived and fought and worked through that desperate struggle with rebellion. To us those four years are a vivid and glowing reality, fliled as they were with earnest purpose and unflagging devotion to our country's

The society of which Mrs. Rouse was President was auxiliary to the United States Sanitary Commission, and its work was done principally for the Western armies. Many men of those armies who finally marched with Sherman to the sea will remember the mark of our society on clothing and hospital stores. Over one million dollars worth of clothing and hospital supplies and many thousands of dollars in money passed through our hands, and were carefully distributed to the soldiers wherever they were most needed. That work demanded great faithfulness; and not less important was the Officers of W. H. Sargent Post, No. 29, Janesville:

Always at her post, through storms or sunny veather, her cheering words and sympathetic heart inspired us all, and during those sad days when tidings of another and another dreadful battle would reach us and tax our resources and strength to the utmost, how untiring were her efforts, how great her courage. Her quiet tact and good sense kept our large band of contributing societies harmoniously together, and enabled us to do a work for our country of which we have reason to be proud. Her sympathies were unfailing. Many a poor soldier has gone away from our rooms cheered and helped by her kindness, and many a regiment joined in hearty cheers for the little, quiet woman with the motherly smile, who New York. larly interesting to all who have taken the sacred obligations of the Woman's Relief Corps:
"What a tragedy! A woman on her dying pillow, thinking of what she might have done for God and humanity, and yet having done nothing Compare her demise with that of Harriet Newell going down to peacefully die in the Isle of France, reviewing her lifetime sacrifices for the redemption of India; or at the last hours of Elizabeth Hervey, having exchanged her bright New England home for a life at Bombay amid stolid heathenism that she might illumine it, saying in her last moments: 'If this is the dark valley, it has not a dark spot in it; all is light, light!' or the exit of Mrs. Lennox, falling under sudden disease at Smyrna, breathing out her soul with the last words, 'Oh, how happy!' or the departure of Mrs. Sarah D. Comstock, spending her life for the salvation of Burmah, giving up her children that they might come home to America to be educated, and saying, as she kissed them upon its steady growth and material prosperity, as | good-by, never to see them again: 'Oh, Jesus, I do this for Thee!' or the going of 10,000 good women who, in less resounding speres, have lived not for themselves, but for God and the alleviation of human suffering. That was a brilliant scene when in 1485, in the campaign for the capture of Ronda, Queen Elizabeth, of Castile, on horseback, side by side with King Ferdinand, rode out to review the troops: As she in bright armor rode along the lines of the Spanish hosts, and waved her jeweled hand to the warriors, and ever and anon uttered words of cheer to the worn veterans who, far away from their homes, were risking their lives for the kingdom, it was a speciacle that illumines history. But more glorious will be the scene when that con-

but grandly have the women responded to the calls for aid. The work of inspection was so arranged that it was thoroughly and easily done. I had the honor of inspecting the Corps at Severance, Atchison and Leavenworth, and found them in most excellent condition and full of enthusiasm While at Atchison I visited the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, where I found about 80 happy, hearty-looking children. The Home building is a model of comfort and convenience, and Capt. Pierson and his wife have the happy faculty which combines thorough discipline with utmost kindness, so that these four score lads and lasses are surrounded with the atmosphere of a true home. Santa Claus did not forget them, and my own Corps (Hiawatha, No. 42,) was one of his agents. I had also the pleasure of visiting the Soldiers' Home at Leavenworth, There are about 1.800 veteran inmates at present, and though the provisions seem ample, I am told that they are quite inadequate for the accommodation of all who wish to make use of them. The ocation of the Home is very fine, and when the United States Government has had a few years in which to improve the natural advantages, the grounds, at least, will rival those of the fort, and the place will attract many visitors. There is a large room in one of the buildings which is used as a chapel, and also for entertainments. It is furnished with a stage and fine scenery, which was painted by one of the comrades. If Mrs. Liver-more, Mrs. Telford, Mrs. Wittenmyer or Mrs. King should come to Kansas during the year, I hope they will visit the Home and give the boys such a talk as they know so well how to give. I am sure they will be made very welcome, both by the offi- Sec., Mrs. Ralph Cummings. Joint installation

DEPARTMENT OF NEW MEXICO.

DEAR TRIBUNE: No doubt it will be interesting to the many W.R.C. readers of your columns to hear a word from New Mexico, the Sunny South Land, the Aztlan of pre-Columbian times-the land of which most people in the States have such vague, incorrect ideas. The very best way to correct your erroneous impressions and give them a permanent clearness is to come and bask a few months in the glorious sunshine of this region. But you must not for a moment think that because we have so much and such intense sunshine that we have it always warm here, It must be born in mind that we are a good deal nor yet so extremely warm, as it is in your Northern lower altitudes. At the present writing the surrounding mountains and foot-hills are covered Edgerly. with snow. Even on the mesa, along the arroyas, and in the shadows of the trees, it lies undisturbed. The snowfall has been much more abundant this Winter than usual in the Territory. But the W.R.C. of New Mexico! Of course you all have read in the printed reports of last National Convention that "the organization makes least progress in Maine and New Mexico." Now, it does not appear to us that there is the least comparison between the two. It must be remembered in this connection that New Mexico is as large as all of New England and New York, with New Jersey thrown in, and that while Maine has about 22 inhabitants to the square mile, New Mexico has less than one person to the same area. Think of the difficulties of organizing such a vast, sparsely-settled region, full of mountains and scarce of rail roads. Besides all this, it must be remembere that a very small proportion of the inhabitants of New Mexico are veterans, and that there are quite as many ex-Confederate as Union soldiers here. However, there are 11 wide-awake Grand Army Posts in this Department and three fully-organized Relief Corps, with another at this place ready for installation of officers, and the comrades of Carleton Post, Santa Fe, will soon have an auxiliary; so that after all the far-away Department of New Mexico, W.R.C., is not so extremely in the rear of our more favored States, if you consider it in proportion to the Department G.A.R.

Of one thing we are sure, that the members of the G.A.R. and the W.R.C. in this Department will compare with any others in enterprise and intelligence, and they are fully awake to the objects of our work. We know of one Post in this Territory, more than 80 miles from the railroad, that sent a delegation of 10 comrades to the National Encampment at St. Louis. Four of those comrades were accompanied by their wives, who have recently joined the W.R.C. This same Post (Kearney, No. 10, of White Oaks) presented the Department of New Mexico, G.A.R., with a handsome banner. There is another obstacle in the way of W.R.C. organization in New Mexico that may not have suggested itself to you. It is this: about half the comrades are unmarried. For example, Kearney Post, of this place, has a membership of 41, and not more than 25 of them have families. You see we have not the soldiers' widows and orphans to care for here that you have in the States; calls for charity are comparatively rare. The one apparent opportunity for aiding the comrades here seems to be to assist them out of their single blessedness! I tell you most solemnly favorably known to require comment at our hands. we have more relief work in that line than we can possibly manage. Let this be a sort of "cry from Macedonia, come and help us," to our Eastern sisters of W.R.C.—Maggie Monroe Rudisille,

The fourth annual Convention, Department of Kansas, will assemble at Winfield, Kan., Feb. 21, at 8 p. m. The following members of Conkling Corps, No. 39, constitute the Reception Committee: Mesdames Libble Seward, Minnie Powell, Julia Caton, Alice G. Limerick, Della Conkling. Kansas Headquarters have been for the last year at Lar-ned, Emma A. Bedeil Department President, Frances H. Lund Department Secretary. The administration has been prosperous, and a pleasant and profitable Convention is anticipated.

Corps No. 43, Manhattan, Kan., is a helpful and industrious aid to the Post, of which it has been an active assistant in relief work. Nellie O. Edful program joint-installation night, when the fol-lowing Corps officers were installed: President. At the close Mrs. Custis, in behalf of the Corps, presented Mrs. Robbins with a handsome easy chair. The secret of Mrs. Robbins's great success will be found in the following words from her able farewell address, full of wholesome counsel and abounding in Christian lover "I have aimed to bring into our membership broad natures, prominent inour membership broad natures, prominent, in-fluental women, women of well-known executive ability, women of culture and wealth, women of benevolent instincts and patriotic feelings. Un-bounded is the influence, counsel and work of such women. I have desired that we should have no selfish aims, personal ambitions, personal feel-ings or intrigues; that we should sink criticisms. and grievances, and keeping our obligation, be ever fraternal and kind, covering up each other's fauits, if any there be, and striving ever for Christ's spirit in doing the blessed work for which this order was organized." DEPARTMENT OF KANSAS.

DEAR TRIBUNE: I fear the friends in other States will think that the Relief Corps work in Kansas is not prospering, reports from this Department being so infrequent. The contrary, however, is true; the Department's health is, in every way, good, as the next Department Convention, to be held at Winfield Feb. 21, 22 and 23, will show.

The extremely cold weather and hard times combined has made heavy drafts upon the relief fund, but grandly have the women responded to the

Custer's Courage. EDITOR NATIONAL TRIBUNE: I want to brand Maj. Reno's base assertion that Custer was a coward as an infamous lie. There never was a nobler, braver man than Gen. George A. Custer. As a member of the old Third Cavalry say we loved him for his daring bravery fully as much as for his other noble qualities. Ask the soldiers who followed him from Cedar Creek when Custer did not lead them. Ask the 1st Vt. or 15th N. Y. Cav. where Custer was at Five Forks, or at Appomattox when the flag of truce
